The 2022 Bishop's Appeal commitment weekend will be held next weekend, February 19-20. This is our opportunity as a Parish/Parochial Community to unite with our Ordinariate family to support our shared mission of evangelization. Our Parish goal is $50,000.00. In the coming week, please take the time to prayerfully reflect on the gifts that you have been given by God and respond to Bishop Lopes' appeal as generously as possible.

Your participation is essential to the success of the Ordinariate. Please join other Catholics from throughout the Ordinariate in supporting this very important appeal next week. Thank you for your support.

Today begins the Pre-Lenten Season. The Pre-Lenten Season was suppressed in the Catholic Church in 1969. However, it has been restored by Rome into our Divine Worship: The Missal.

The Pre-Lenten Season begins on the third Sunday before Ash Wednesday. The proper names for the three Sundays are: Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima.

This season is marked by the use of the liturgical color purple, omitting the Gloria and Alleluia tract. These three marks of Pre-Lent and Lent will continue until used briefly on Holy Thursday, and not to return again until the Great Vigil of Easter.

The restoration of the Pre-Lenten Season in our missal is a gift from Rome; it not only recaptures an old liturgical practice, but also encourages you to be joined with Catholics from the past who used these three weeks to slowly move into the long penitential season of Lent.

The time is quickly approaching in which we are called to ponder the words, "Remember, that thou art dust, and unto dust shalt thou return."

Wise Men See God in the Simple Things - If you're on social media, you have probably seen a meme going around that features this quote: "God has a plan for your life. The enemy has a plan for your life. Be ready for both. Just be wise enough to know which one to battle and which one to embrace."

There were certainly two competing plans for the Magi: God's and Herod's. And, wise as they supposedly were, it wasn't entirely easy for the Magi to discern which was which. After all, Herod posed as a friend. He offered the Magi hospitality and kindness. Though the Gospel doesn't say so, he probably flattered them and appealed to every moral weakness he could observe in them. In his palace, they must have felt great physical comfort — rest and tables of plenty on what was an otherwise long and treacherous journey.

But if the Magi were honest with themselves, I'll bet they would have admitted that, regardless of Herod's charm, they felt a gnawing sense of doubt while in his presence. When they looked upon the Christ Child, born in a stable without any of the comforts of the world or protections of wealth, they probably felt the opposite. They probably felt safe. The Magi were lucky enough to have the right plan spelled out for them in a dream, but for the rest of us, it's enough to remember this: God's plan is often the one that leads us to places of great simplicity, great humility and great love. Let's have the wisdom to view power with suspicion, and innocence with admiration. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi
