A Message From The Pastor

In today's epistle reading St. Paul compares the Body of Christ to a human body, which has many differing parts, but all the parts are necessary to function fully.

God has brought all of us to Atonement, whether new or a long time parishioner. We have found many reasons to call Atonement home, it may be the liturgy that attracts us, it may be the CCD Classes, it may be the ministries, or even the family atmosphere. We are thankful God has brought you here.

However, I have a question for you-what talent or ministry do you bring to the parish? If indeed we are a body, then we cannot fully function unless all of our members are doing their part for the body.

God has given each of us gifts and talents. Please pray, and offer your time, talent, and treasure to the ministry of this parish. We cannot fully be the parish God wants us to be until we all are sharing the gifts God has given to us.

Offer your time, talent, and treasure to be used for the Glory of God; He will accept our offerings, bless them, multiply them, and use them for His Great Glory. May the Glory of God reign down upon us!

A Welcome from our Pastor

Welcome to Our Lady of The Atonement. We are a parish of The Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of St. Peter. Our Bishop, chancery, and cathedral are located in Houston, Texas.

The Ordinariate of the Chair of St. Peter was established in the United States by Pope Benedict XVI on January 1, 2012. It is one of three Personal Ordinariates in the world, the other two being established in England and Australia.

These Ordinariates were established to meet the repeated requests from Anglicans to the Holy See for communion to be realized. In establishing the Ordinariates, the founding document “Anglicanorum coetibus” or “Groups of Anglicans” allowed for groups of Anglicans to enter into full communion with the Holy See, while maintaining elements of its patrimony. The liturgy you will experience today, known as Divine Worship: The Missal was designed and promulgated by Rome for the use in all Ordinariate Communities.

Ordinariate parishes are fully Catholic, and in full communion with the Holy See. Our Bishop is The Most Rev. Steven Lopes. He is a member of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and is the Chairman of the USCCB’s Committee on Divine Worship.

All Catholics are welcome to attend any Ordinariate parish, and can indeed become a member of the parish. If you are seeking a new spiritual home we invite you to complete a registration form (which can be found in the narthex or by going to our website).

For additional information please go to: <https://ordinariate.net> or <https://ourladyoftheatonement.org/>

We do hope and pray your visit with us will bring you into the holy otherness of God.
