Gospel Meditation - January 30, 2022  4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

St. Oscar Romero (1917-1980) was a “Salvadoran Roman Catholic archbishop who was a vocal critic of the violent activities of government armed forces, right-wing groups, and leftist guerrillas involved in El Salvador’s civil conflict (Encyclopedia Britannica).” As a voice of the voiceless, he was an outspoken champion of the poor who were the ones most affected by the civil unrest and violence. His advocacy provoked several attempts on his life. Nonetheless, St. Oscar Romero was convinced that before all else his faith in the resurrected Christ and the values of the Gospel trumped any earthly concern or worry. He walked with complete confidence and trust. On March 24, 1980, St. Oscar Romero was assassinated while celebrating Mass. Such is often the fate of those who challenge the socio-political agendas of the day.

We may look at the example of witness of St. Oscar Romero as something extraordinary. In one sense it is. Through the power of God, an ordinary human being did extraordinary things. But, in and of himself, St. Oscar Romero was simply a humble, loving servant of God. Oscar knew not only the power of love but the risk that comes when loving unconditionally. The beauty of God’s message was able to shine in and through him because he was able to step out of the way and be a vessel. One can assume that for St. Oscar Romero, one’s earthly life has no merit when faith, integrity, conviction, zeal and love are jettisoned. Fear and apprehension had no grip on this man who not only saw but spoke the truth.

Do we speak the truth? It makes us feel good to speak of God as love. But have we ever considered the ramifications of this radical message? There are assaults on human life occurring daily. More and more the value and worth of a human being is being reduced and minimalized. We are becoming widgets in the production of life. In our whole simple humble ways, we too are called to be prophets. Knowing who you are and what is within your means to do, how can you make God’s love real, stand up for what is right, and give witness to the sacredness of all that is around you?

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In today’s Old Testament reading we hear the powerful words spoken by God to the prophet Jeremiah, “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you.” These few words have great theological impact.

Of course this passage is used to defend life, from the time of conception. But these words speak even more deeply about God’s intimate knowledge of each of us, and therefore His love for us.

I want to invite you to ponder the words of God as spoken to Jeremiah, particularly the words, “I knew you.” What does it mean to know another? Certainly we can say, I know many people. We even know some people better than we do others and perhaps even intimately. But what does God mean when speaking these words? Does He know us more intimately, or more deeply than we know ourselves?

If that is the case, and it is, then it means God knows all of our character flaws, defects, and sins-he knows them better than we do ourselves-and yet, He still loves us and came among us to free us from the bondage of sin.

To this end, we all need to be healed: spiritually, emotionally, psychologically, or even physically. We are in need of being made whole in Jesus Christ.

Therefore, I am pleased to announce a quarterly Mass for Healing. Our first Mass for Healing will be held on Friday evening, February 19, 7 p.m.

Jesus said, “The thief comes to steal and kill and destroy. I have come that they may have life, and have it abundantly (John 10:10.)

God created us with a purpose in mind, namely to love Him and know Him intimately. May we be healed, and set free to become the person He created us to be.
Registrations for CYO Baseball and Softball is now open. Teams will begin to form soon, so please register now. Registration closes on Sunday, February 20, 2022 and practices will start on February 21st with the first regular season games on March 25th.
