Laying a Foundation

God bless all of you who have so generously responded in support of the 2022 Bishop's Appeal. Gifts to this campaign make it possible for more of God's people to be touched by the Ordinariate's lively faith, active devotion, and beauty in worship.

If you have not yet responded, please do so today. Pick up a pledge card and envelope or visit Ordinariate.net/bishops-appeal to give.

From the Pastor's Desk

I hope you are off to a good beginning of your Lenten journey. It is quite popular to "give up" something for Lent. If you are "giving up" something you are to be commended.

There may be some of us who "take on" something new to our regular spiritual discipline, such as reading a book, or more study. If you are "taking on" something new, you are to be commended.

I would like to suggest we consider something much more practical, and which is commended to us by Jesus. When the rich man approached Jesus to ask, "What must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus responded by quoting the commandments, but not all of the commandments, but only those which have to do with relationships with others: Honor thy father and mother; Thou shall not kill; Thou shall not commit adultery; Thou shall not steal; Thou shall not bear false witness against thy neighbor; Thou shall not covet thy neighbor's wife; Thou shall not covet thy neighbor's goods.

In fulfilling these commandments we are loving our neighbor as ourselves. I will make it a part of my Lenten discipline to master these commandments. I invite you to consider doing the same.

May you have a blessed Lenten Season.

Brothers & Sisters, we ask that you keep the following members in your prayers.

- > Pope Francis > Bishop Lopes > John Shannon Murphy
- > Suzanne Castle
- > Our Ordinariate Priests, Deacons, Acolytes, and Seminarians

To add someone to this list, please send an email, to joliveros@atonementonline.com.

Does God Forgive Abortion?

Question: Can a person (the mother, father, or provider) ever be forgiven for an abortion?

Answer: For people of faith, any conversation of human sinfulness should always lead us to reflect on God's loving mercy. Because God's mercy is greater than any sin, the Church is clear that even those involved in the sin of abortion can be reconciled with God and the Church. To help make this grace more available through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Pope Francis extended the permission to absolve someone of the sin of abortion to all priests in 2016.

Even with the grace and blessings of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, the tragedy of abortion and the aftermath of abortion takes a toll on everyone involved. Ministries of outreach and support, such as Project Rachel, offer pastoral counseling, support groups, retreats, and other forms of care. As Christians, we are also called to help promote this healing and reconciliation in all its forms. To learn more, visit www.hopeafterabortion.com.
